About East Lindsey District Council

East Lindsey District Council is geographically one of the largest shire district councils in the country, and covers some 700 square miles with around 140,000 residents.

People living in East Lindsey pay the lowest rate of Council Tax in Lincolnshire at £9.37 per month (average Band D home) for hundreds of services, including weekly refuse collection, leisure centre provision, housing support services, benefit support, economic development and tourism, arts and cultural events and planning and environmental protection, to name just a few.

The district of East Lindsey covers virtually the entire Lincolnshire coastline, including the seaside resorts of Skegness, Sutton on Sea and Mablethorpe. In the heart of the district lies the Lincolnshire Wolds, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). The largest employment sectors are retail and wholesale, hotels and restaurants and health and social care.
