Keeping Entertainment Live!

Welcome

Welcome to the Embassy Theatre Winter/Spring brochure for 2012. We are constantly striving to improve our what's on guide and we hope that you will find the information you are looking for within these pages.

We are delighted to be able to launch, in association with DTC Productions, the all new Embassy School of Performing Arts. It's also a warm welcome back for the Chinese State Circus, Jools Holland and his Rhythm & Blues Orchestra, and for the first time at the Embassy Theatre direct from the West End, for one week only, the smash-hit musical Dreamboats and Petticoats.

We also have a wide range of shows and events that are sure to provide for everyone's taste. Whether it is comedy, drama, music or dance you prefer, the Embassy Theatre has some of the very best live entertainment available.

Halfway To Paradise

In 1983, Britain lost one of its most treasured, iconic, rock and roll stars. It was not until 1996 that a young man bearing a spine-tingling familiarity, appeared on television screens across the country and announced, "Tonight Matthew, I'm going to be Billy Fury". Colin Gold went on to stun Fury's Tornados with a performance that perfectly recreated the sound and sight of the original rocker. From that moment on, the band's dream suddenly had a chance of being fulfilled and soon afterwards, The Billy Fury Story was born.
